

American Society of Nepalese Engineers (ASNEng)
Nepali Engineers Night at Greater Washington D.C.

The enthusiastic Nepali Engineers associated American Society of Nepalese Engineers (ASNEng) organized a SOCIAL GATHERING and ENTERTAINMENT NIGHT of Nepali Engineers and their families residing in the Greater Washington, DC, on Saturday, November 20, 2010 at Beltsville Volunteer Fire Department Hall located at 4911 Prince George 's Ave, Beltsville, MD 20705. The objective of this night/program was to provide a forum for Engineers for socialization and networking.

It was the first formal gathering of Nepali engineers in this area where the Ambassador of Nepal, Dr. Shankar P. Sharma, the President of American Society of Nepalese Engineers, Dr. Ramesh B. Malla and other renowned professionals were present. During the program, the Ambassador acknowledged that this sort of program is essential for the Nepali professionals and it should be continued in upcoming years. Dr. Malla, thanked the Organizing Committee for working hard to bring this program to success. Mr. Bimal Devkota, Mr. Rishi Baral and Mr. Shashi Dahal gave brief speech during the program. The formal part of the program was anchored by Mr. Raj K. Tamang, the Cultural Program was anchored by Shashi Dahal and D.J. was anchored by Mr. Thakur Dhakal.

We had dinner (delicious Nepali Food), an excellent cultural program and D.J. where several of children of Nepali Engineers Community participated. Thakur Dhakal, P.E. presented an emotional Nepali dance. D.J. was another part where almost everyone seemed eager to dance. At the end, Letter of Appreciation was presented to cultural program participants and the Organizing Committee Members. Thank to the Organizing Committee (Mr. Deependra Pokharel, Jagannath Ghimire, Mr. Kulmani Acharya, Mr. Prakash Khanal, Mr. Raj K Tamang, Mr. Rishi Baral, Mr. Santosh Dhakal, Mr. Shalik Wagle, Mr. Shashi Dahal, Mr. Thakur Dhakal, Mr. Yubaraj Budhathoki) for their hard work. Also, thank to our sponsors, R2Intergrated, Rakesh Kumar, the Realtor and Basu Satyal, the Realtor (Report By: Jagannath Ghimire, P.E., General Secretary of ASNEng)

Formal Program, Cultural Program and DJ.

